

TERMS OF USE

All designs are the licensed property of Needle Little Embroidery and are protected under copyright law.

Purchase of these designs extends permission to the original purchaser only, to stitch the designs for personal use, gifts and items for sale. The design files themselves may not be sold, gifted, shared or altered in any way to create a new design/s and then resold. Any sales using NLE LLC designs apart from engaged contracts with NLE LCC, in a digital form is prohibited by law and must be on finished tangible products.

Designs from NLE may not be altered, segmented or combined with other designs to create "as new" design files to then be resold as a digital embroidery file. All designs remain the copyright of Needle Little Embroidery. Design files may not be resold as a downloadable product or be placed for sale via CD, USB or any other manner of transfer.

Commercial sales of your finished products using NLE LLC, purchased designs is allowed. No license is required up to 100 items per calendar year. Free designs gifted by Needle Little Embroidery LLC may not be used in production for profit sales.

If you are a small business crafter / site owner or sell goods through Etsy, Facebook or other venues, acknowledgement of Needle Little Embroidery as the design source on your finished product is required and should be noted on your product/s page. If you sell at shows please include an acknowledgement somewhere within your item's display. For your convenience I can provide you with a printable banner /acknowledgement upon request.
